“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I'd like to share some real hope with you. In John 5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 the bible promises a resurrection of our loved ones back to earth. When Jesus resurrected Lazarus from the dead, he brought him back to earth. He's going to do that on a much larger scale in the future. In Psalms 37:11 29 tells us man will live forever on the earth in peace. That was God's original purpose, for man to live forever in the garden of eden. God's purpose hasn't changed. In Isaiah 45:18 says God created the earth to be inhabited. That's why he gave his son to die for us, John 3:16, so we could have everlasting life. In Revelation 21:4 says there'll be no more pain or death. Is there pain and death in heaven? Of course not. Those are future conditions on earth under God's kingdom arrangement. JW.org

“ We are so sorry to hear about Aunt Annie's passing. She has placed her footprint on my heart and I will be always grateful to have crossed paths with such a beautiful soul. What a gift to have had her in your lives for so long as you did and to have kept her at home as well. I will cherish the memories of our quilt learning weekend with her. I believe her quilting is what kept her going ... she had a purpose. Feel our hugs and know that you're in our prayers. Love you all Carol and Joe

“ My condolences go out to the family. We are sobered by death’s approach, and the Bible encourages us to face death courageously saying: “Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house, the one alive should take it to his heart: (Ecclesiastes 7:2).

“ To All my MA/NH family,
Thinking of you with sincere sympathy at the loss of someone so dear. She meant so much to me; giving me the love of herbs, teaching me how to quilt, sharing the art of of canning and cooking me a home made meal when college food was too much!
May her soul be at peace and with our Heavenly Father. She will be missed.

With much Love,
Linda and Earl Parker
