“ Charlie was a great guy and a giving, gentle soul. He gave me the opportunity to have my first management job and the pride it instilled in me. Just as with many others that will visit this memorial, I'm sure. This man mentored and influenced so many young guys and gals that were just starting off in the real world. You'll be missed for sure.

“ The moment Charlie walked into my life thirty years ago, I knew everything was going to change. There was something special about Charlie - it was not just our shared love of music and film, but also an emotional connection that has lasted throughout my life. You could talk for hours with Charlie and not notice how much time had passed - he was such an excellent listener and expressed a genuine interest in your concerns from the mundane to the difficult. He was also a funny and wry character and we have so many memories of him kidding with all of us, particularly my brother and my nephew.

I do not think of Charlie as merely a friend, but a member of our family. I met my wonderful wife and her amazing sister through Charlie. We were lucky to vacation together to Disney many times over the years and have so many memories of fun times in his company from dinners in Boston to New Years Eve celebrations and even Super Bowl parties.

Goodbye to our great friend. We were so lucky to know you and will miss you dearly. "Even though we have said goodbye, these moments in time will last forever in my mind."

KUNGALOOSH! brother

“ Charlie hired me to work at Borders a long time ago. He was a funny and kind person, as well as a great supervisor. I always enjoyed shifts with him. I'm sad the world lost his light.

“ Charlie was one of the first people to ever take a chance on me, back when we all worked at Loews Theatres. I am forever in his debt because of that gift. Godspeed Charlie...

“ Chuck (Charlie) was one of the kindest souls. He was my best friend forever. He was part of our entire family and we loved him so very much. We spent so many barbecues, holidays where he would laugh at my daughter's and I. I would have daily 2-3 hour phone calls daily. We talked about everything. I will miss him, as will my husband and family for the rest of our lives. I am and always have been Charlie Brown's Lucy. I will miss you forever as will John and the girls and even Nick. You were loved to the moon! You were family.
