May our Lord repose her soul.

“ Grammy, for the most part, was quiet and reserved, but she was always very kind, considerate, caring, and loving of all others.

Some of my fondest childhood memories include Grammy hustling and bustling about in our kitchen, helping to prepare dinner on holidays or on any given Sunday. She made the best gravy ever from scratch! My personal favorite was her delicious spaghetti soup! I was always asking "when is Grammy going to make her soup again, and save some for me".

Our children: Randall (8 yrs old), and Rachel (6 yrs old) are among Grammy's great grandchildren. They loved making homemade cards for her for every occasion. They are young, but they are grasping the situation on their own terms. They said that they are going to miss her, and will miss the special crafts activities for her.

Grammy was a genuinely good person and will be greatly missed. With love, R.I.P.
