“ I will always remember Maxie fondly. I knew her since I was a kid, being friends with her son Bruce. She always had a smile and made us laugh. She was such a fun loving lady and often entertained us with song at the Church coffee hours. She visited the nursing homes, entertaining the residents. She never missed Sunday Mass. A kid at heart, one year she'd asked me to take her photo with the Easter Bunny. She touched the hearts and lives of many. I am so sorry for your loss and will keep in my prayers. She will long be remembered.

“ Maxie was such a personality and talent on and off the stage! Her performances with the St Joe's Variety Show and singing or playing the spoons with various bands were always incredible! Her lively spirit and humor always brightened everyone's day! I visited her on occasion a few years back and we talked about her singing with my Dad Tex when they were kids and later with the Sundowners! She led such a full and productive life, never wavering in her spirit and kindness to those around her. My condolences to the family! A picture of Maxie singing with the Sundowners.

“ Hey Kevin & Michael, your Mom was always my(& my siblings & my cousins) Aunt Evelyn, even though she was my mother’s cousin. She, Aunt Ida & Uncle Camille would frequently, as they would say, “take a drive to Bennington” to visit my grandmother. She was so vivacious & we all wanted to be around her. I visualize her sailing past St. Peter, singing & shouting to all, “I’m here”! I have such fond memories of being around her. She would always remind me that she had 20-20 vision, so I began calling her 20-20. I loved hearing over & over her story of the power prayer when she was required to take a typing test for a job. A slight detail was that she didn’t type!!! But, she stayed waiting her turn to interview passing the time saying her rosary over & over! She got the job & taught herself how to type. The Power of Prayer! She was amazing. She certainly lived a fruitful & kaleidoscopic life, enjoying each & every day. Kathy (Cook) DeLucco
