“ Floyd was a kind and generous man. When I was chairman of the Library Trustees he made a gavel for me to use at our meetings. As far as I know it is in the new Library to this day. He enjoyed visiting with people, whether at the Senior Center or on a stool at Cliff's. He is greatly missed and appreciated. May he rest in peace. My sincere condolences to his family. Carol Wright

“ Floyd's attention to detail in his wood carvings was extraordinary. His eagle headed canes for veterans were beautiful. I remember him bringing one in to show me, How humble he was. A gentleman! My thoughts and prayers to his family and friends.

When Floyd started the wood carving class at the Sr. Center I was eager to join. We had a lot of laughs and we also leaned a little about wood carving. Floyd had a soft touch and a calming way of teaching. You never made a mistake when carving you just created a new direction. I'm glad I got to know him. Rest in peace dear friend. .J.D'A.
