“ I met Jacquie at New England Life Insurance in 1958. We worked together for 6 months, We instantly became friends. I moved to California in 1959 with my family and we stayed friends for all these years. The few times I came back to the east coast, we would get together. I always said I wanted to come back there and she wanted to come to CA. I was planning on coming next year. We called each other, but sad to say not enough. She had said we need to talk once a month. She was doing good last time I talked to her. I was so saddened to hear of her death. She will be missed. RIP Jacquie. I love you. Toni Morgan
