“ I knew Janice when she was Youth Director at St. Marks in Westford. My daughter Melanie was in the Youth Group and she and Janice Had a Special bond. I introduced Janice to PEO. I am sorry that I lost touch with her when we retired to Rhode Island in 2014. My heartfelt condolences. She was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed. I am sorry I only learned of her death today when I received a copy of a PEO newsletter.

“ My name is Amber Klauer. I worked with Janice at Gates extended Day. The children LOVED her and so did the staff. We had many laughs together. My husband and I heard her sing at a Christmas concert. She had a voice like an angel! She told me about her family. You could tell she loved them dearly.

Our love to the Yancy family and we are sure Janice is singing with the angels.

“ I had the pleasure and honor of working with Janice, as well as sharing music together in the Threshold Singers of Indian Hill. Janice was part of our staff at Gates Extended Day for many years. She eagerly shared her passion for felt crafts and sewing projects with the children, and they loved them, and loved her. I will remember her every time I come across one of her examples she made of the crafts we have created.

Janice was gracious and kind. She shared her voice and presence with our choir and for those at the end of life. Janice was a role model for our children, and for our staff and singers. Facing adversity one day at a time with grace and dignity. May these memories of Janice bring comfort and strength at this very difficult time. We will miss her.

Janice worked with us at Douglas School at our before and after school child care program for years. She always said she loved her "little gremlins"! She was a genius with crafts and impressed us all with how much she was able to do despite her major medical issues. She exemplified the qualities of perseverance and grace. She will be sorely missed!
