“ Shirley and family I just want to say how very sorry I am for your loss John was a great guy kind caring and a sense of humor. My fondest memories of John was always at the Federated Church or Matarial Aid where he would do something funny or say something funny. Always picking on one of us in a nice way of course we would always go to Mcdonalds afterwards where he and Ralph Winslow would joke around down there as well. One time about 2 days after Matarial aid I was cleaning out my backpack to go somewhere and John had stuck a bunch of stuff in my backpack he was always doing something funny it never surprised me when he would do something because that was John such a wise guy .I also remember yelling John when I saw all the stuff and my husband Robert and I just started laughing. I confronted him in church that Sunday and I said to him John I know you put stuff in my backpack and he was like what I didn't do anything with a grin on his face I have other fond memories of him but that one just sticks out. RIP John you will be missed by everyone my thoughts and prayers are with you Shirley and family love to you all.

“ I remember riding our bikes with you down the street to the small river. We would throw sticks and stones in it and you would tell us stories.
I remember when you gave me my first Dr. Pepper right out of the vending machine where you used to work, now it's one of my favorite sodas.
When we would go grocery shopping and you would disappear, and then we would hear you over the speaker singing to Nanny.
I have so many beautiful memories with you, I will cherish them all.
Watch over us, I miss and love you so very much.

“ I will always remember our walks to the lake, when you taught me your bird sounds and we'd feed the ducks. Or when we'd go to the big Walmart and you'd let Nanny do her thing because you always had to bring us to the arcade so we could go on everything there and do every claw machine...I'll love you always and forever Puppy
Rest in peace
