“ Dear Montuori's, So sorry to hear of your loss. I have wonderful memories of the old days when people used to just drop in on friends (unannounced of course!) to visit and share a laugh! Your family was always part of the Ware's extended family and the love and support you shared with me is still treasured today. Sadly, It had been way too many years since I had my last Pabst Blue Ribbon in the company of my old friend, your husband, your dad. I will always remember Lawrie for his smile, firm handshake, wonderful laugh and huge heart. Whether we were driving around looking for mushrooms or watching a ballgame, it was always great to be with him.

I apologize for not being at the services in person to show my support to each of you. I am currently in South Africa (vacationing) and just (now) heard the sad news while checking in with my sister. Know that I share in your loss, but will celebrate his spirit and his life, as well as the wonderful legacy he left the world through each of you. May peace be with each of you. Please know that although it has been way too long since we last visited each other, our old friendship remains treasured!
God Bless!

“ I remember, as little girls, we'd all run to look out the window at, as Mom explained, "the man who kept us all warm!" We'd giggle and strain to get a good look at this wonderful man who made sure we were never cold! Your Dad was a gem. I'm so sorry for your loss. Love, Leighann Grado

“ I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Montouri's passing. I have many fond memories of him and his family; The family gatherings at the apartments at Hamptom Beach, the parties at their house and my parent's house and other places. He was a generous man with a great sense of humor. He also kept us warm with his heating oil deliveries. He will be missed. Sending prayers for the family.
