“ Farwell my brother-in law ,Legrant Lee Grant from your sister in law Gwendolyn Williams the great state of Mississippi. the state we always joked about , you would say," I got my pretty wife Linda" out that old miserable place: I would say, she was already in MA. shame on you, then you would say, I love you "Bimp", gone somewhere. I called you peter Rabbits every time we talked , you excepted that. Thank you for the great life long memories of sharing with my family. We are going to miss you my brother. however as long as I live I will help my little sister Faye to keep Alexis moving toward her dreams. Why, because I know that is what you would want and what you strive for all her life when you were here with them. Farwell again my friend.

“ Dearest Linda and Alexis,
My love and prayers go out to you at this time. I pray that God comforts you. I can picture Lee and Andy goofing around together up in heaven. He was a good friend. I was so honored when you had me sing at your wedding. Remember the joy, love, and laughter. The great cookouts you would have. I was glad when he came to work at the Post Office. One thing I liked about him was that he didn't pretend. He was the same every day. We will miss him. I am here if you need anything.
With Deepest Sympathy
Love,

“ Hi Auntie Faye ,
My sympathy goes out to you and my little cousin Alexis. This is your nephew Jerry J. Williams Jr.. You know in life uncle Lee and I had something in common , The masonic; and being one of his brother I cherished his advice at all times and live the life he talked with me about through the years. I love you and I love him.Today I say farewell uncle Lee. I look forward to seeing you again in the New World order. Travel well my brother and my friend.

“ Alexis and Mrs. Blackwell,

I was sorry to receive the news about the death of your father and husband. Although I didn't know him, he sounds like he was a good guy. May your faith and love and support for each other help you to get through this difficult period.

Sincerely,

“ LeGrant was my brother-in-law and I was, my sister, Linda's Matron of Honor at their wedding. After that day...the four of us (My husband, Norman, Lee, Linda & I (Sister Barbara) spent many years going on vacations together & visiting each other from Ohio to Massachusetts (Chicago, New Orleans, Texas, Mississippi, my Retirement Ceremony, Etc.). Lee kept us all on our toes with his "very" unique, knowledgeable, stern, outgoing & inquisitive personality. Of course - he was the first to pay for most everything with his own money & credit cards. He & Linda always sent Christmas gifts to us and my first two granddaughters. They insured this was done each December. There was never a dull moment (day, nor night) when Lee & Linda were with us. One year we picked them up at the airport late in the night..and I shall never forget how eight....yes..eight (8) people killed into our vehicle and we all rode home together using a major highway filled with traffic on a rainy night...yes.. in the same car....the four of us..my two children..and two God sons (1 White, 1 Phillapeano)...he treated all races the same..and believed in Human Rights & Equality. Several of the kids rode inside down with their legs all in our faces. Luckily the suitcases were in the trunk of our 1995 Cougar. So..Yes..LeGrant had a great sense of humor..fussed and told us off all the way home while the car was filled with laughter and kids tumbling everywhere while we drove cautiously to avoid being stopped by a Police Officer. LeGrant looked the finest in life..had a Big Heart..and took life very serious. Everyone - who were acquainted with him knows these comments to be true. Thus, we all shall miss him greatly and may God Bless my dear "Twice-Sweet" Sister Linda and my "Very-intellectual" niece - Alexis: Both, whom, stood by their, now deceased "loved-one" (husband & father) to this very end.

And, now, having performed well on the stage of life in the mortal flesh....may LeGrant's soul be surrendered to eternal rest & peace. Then, I pray that his soul be manifested & returned to the glory, care, salvation, and reconciliation of God to be at home in Heaven on behalf off all the "good deeds" that out-weighed the bad.... as done on Earth...the "Good Deeds...all of which shall remain written in many hearts by the words of known truths - and never be passed away.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Barbara J. Johnson (Sister)

“ My apologies for posting this so late, but I just heard the sad news this morning. I did not know Lee well. In fact, I usually called him Sarge because to me he was a proud veteran. He always cheered me up with his smile and his sense of humor. He was a gentleman, a wonderful example of what it means to be a good husband and father! Lee was respected by all and loved by many. He will be missed. Tim Holland
