“ I remember fondly the days when you lived next to Cameron school and when we were at WA. You were never afraid to say what you were thinking and that was one of your best traits. Never a dull moment when you were around! Rest in peace, you will be missed.

“ I went to school with Marilyn since the 7th Grade, and she was in my graduating class. Marilyn was a beauty with a dynamic personality. I am so sorry that we were not able to get together for one of those Westford lunches with the gals....God Bless Marilyn, she is in the arms of the Angels who are taking her straight to heaven.....
