

Martin Moody

September 15, 2017

Martin was born at Yokota Air Base, Japan, on February 27, 1976 to Mieko (Nakamura) and Anthony H. Moody.

Martin graduated Lincoln-Sudbury Regional High school in 1994. He would later acquire an Associates of Arts degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences from Middlesex Community College in 2001. Martin continued his quest for knowledge and graduated from the University of Massachusetts at Lowell with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Management with a minor in Marketing in 2004.

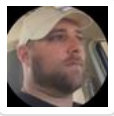

Martin worked for Fidelity Investment for 10 years from 2006 to 2016 and for PCM Inc. from August 2016 until his passing. He was well-liked by his PCM family and fortunate to have two special co-workers/friends, Margo and Nancy. One of Martin's favorite quote, picked up while at PCM, Inc., is "I'm Alive, I'm Awake, and I Feel Great!"

He had a great sense of humor and was enthusiastic about playing baseball, hiking, grilling, watching the Boston Red Sox. Martin's other interests included playing the Jazz Saxophone, golfing and automobiles. He was charismatic, sharp, and a people person with high energy. He was proud of his Japanese heritage, and loved each visit to reunite with his roots. His greatest passion was "Boston Moody," his beloved English Bulldog and constant companion for over two years.

Besides his parents of Lunenburg, Martin is survived by his elder sister Michelle Carter and husband, Christopher, younger brother Micah Moody, and younger sister Monica Moody. He leaves aunts, Joan Williams, Cynthia Allen and husband, David, Deborah Moody, Sharon Moody, Renee Whitaker and husband, Floyd; uncles Hiroshi Nakamura, Masayuki Nakamura, Robert Moody III, Wilbert Moody, and a host of loving cousins and friends.

Martin will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Comments

“ I was shocked to learn just now of the passing of my friend Martin, we had spoken as much once he moved from Lowell and last time I saw him was in about a year before he passed, we were with out buddy's B and Kam and he just got Boston.. such a cute puppy. Going to miss you man

“ To my friend, Renee Whitaker, Martin's parents, siblings and the entire Moody family. We send condolences during your time of sorry. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Lean on God's everlasting arms during this time of bereavement. God is your strength during times like this. Hold on and comfort one another as each of you move forward. Take it one day, one minute or one second of time as each of your need dictates to as the healing begins. May God bless and keep each of you. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

“ So many great memories with Martin: working on the same team at Fidelity, going out for sushi while visiting ABQ, dancing at Fidelity holiday parties, him coming to my wedding, feeding his piranha fish at his Lowell apartment, him bringing Boston to my house - my kids could not get enough of that dog! He was a great co worker and ever a greater friend. My entire family loved him and looked forward to his visits back in New England. Our hearts are filled with sadness for such a tremendous loss. We send our mass intentions and prayers for his soul. May he Rest In Peace in the presence of our Lord.
