“ John and family I for many years would sit near Mija at the 8:30 mass at St Mary's and later at St Anthony's and always admired what strong faith she had even in the later years when her health was not good there she was sitting in the same pew she sat in every day . Mija also would always ask how my disabled son Matthew was doing and that she was praying for him ... every time . My prayers are with you all and may she rest in peace . She sure was a faithful warrior .
