

Susan L. Wardle

July 10, 1950 - January 18, 2021

SHIRLEY: It is with great sadness to announce the passing of Susan L. "Sue" Wardle, 70, on Monday, January 18, 2021.

She was married to Terri Holbein who predeceased her last July.

Sue was born July 10, 1950 in El Paso, Texas.

Sue grew up as a "military brat", living in many places, eventually establishing her roots to live in Shirley for most of her life. She worked since high school at All Star Sports, formerly George Frost Company in the accounting department.

Sue will be best remembered for the almost daily gatherings at her and Terri's home, where great memories were made by their many great friends and family. It was the local hangout.

Sue loved cats and Buster and Daisey miss her greatly. Her parents, Jim and Barbara Wardle and older brother, Steven Wardle predeceased her. She is survived by her sister Sandy Shelton and life mate Bobby Gilmore, their brother and wife, Scott and Jan Wardle, her nephew and wife, Bobby and Wendy Baxter, and nieces Paige, Kayla, Samantha and Seneca. Her close friends and family members are many. Karen Lirette, Terri's sister Connie and Diane Belmont were the favorites.

A service will be held later in the spring, where she can be remembered at her home. Condolences can be made on line at <http://www.andersonfuneral.com>.

“ I remember summer days at Sandy Pond, sharing stories after school, eating raw cake mixes and staring at the liver on our plates like that would make it disappear, Sandy, Sue's sister
