She was born on 6 March 1991 in Leominster, MA. She had been living in Fox Lake, WI, but was looking forward to relocating to MA with her family.

Alex successfully completed the dental assistance program at the Wisconsin Dental Assistant School, and loved helping people working as an assistant. She was looking forward to advancing her education and continuing in the field of dentistry.

Alexandra was a beautiful soul she will be missed by all that knew and loved her. She had an infectious smile that would light up a room.
