

Alice L. (Landry) Bolduc

June 24, 2017

Alice was born in Montreal, Canada, on January 1, 1918, one of twelve children to the late Alfred and Rose (Boucher) Bolduc. She had lived in Fitchburg for most of her life before moving to Florida in the early 80's.

She worked as an inspector at the Foster Grant Company in Leominster for several years prior to her retirement in 1980.

Alice was an avid square, line, and ballroom dancer and enjoyed playing cards. She was a member of the former Madonna of the Holy Rosary Parish.

She leaves three sons, Bernard Forget and his wife Carolyn of Lunenburg, Raymond Forget and his wife Barbara of Rindge, NH and Norman Forget of Hinsdale, NH; 8 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and several nephews and nieces.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ To the Forget family, please accept my deepest of sympathies on the passing of your mother. I remember her as a very kind woman who loved her children and grandchildren with all of her heart. I remember her teaching the kids how to do the chicken dance and their laughs and happiness for their grandmother. She sits with God now and is truly an angel.

Doreen (Forget) Burkey - September 19, 2017 at 02:21 PM

SB

“ We would like to express our condolences to Alice's family.

On behalf of her sisters Lucie and Jeanne, and brother Paul, we extend their deepest sympathies; Alice was a great sister and she will be truly missed and will always be remembered.

*Sincerely,
Therese's children*

Suzanne, Celine, Marc, Luc Bourgoing - June 27, 2017 at 05:35 PM

JB

“ To the Bolduc Family: I am sorry to hear about Alice's death. Even though Alice lived a long life, I know it is still painful to know that she has passed away. It is times like this that make us look forward to a time when all on earth will live forever without experiencing any more sickness or death (Revelation 21:4).

James B - June 26, 2017 at 05:56 PM