

Andrea R. (Wilson) Wood, of Townsend

August 29, 1944 - April 25, 2025

Townsend - Andrea R. (Wilson) Wood, 80, of Townsend passed away on Friday April 25th at Health Alliance Leominster Hospital. She was surrounded by family.

Andrea was born in Detroit Michigan on August 29, 1944, a daughter of the late Andrew and Ruth (Dicker) Wilson.

In 1975 Andrea settled in Townsend, MA. She quickly became enamored with her new hometown and wanted to be more involved. She found her calling in being a public servant and for over 4 decades worked continuously and selflessly for the betterment of Townsend. Most notably serving several terms on the Board of Selectman and decades on the Finance Committee.

She was an avid collector of depression glass and enjoyed flowers and gardening.

Andrea was a loving mother of four and will be greatly missed by family and friends.

She is survived by two sons, Andrew Wood of Brighton, MI, Daniel Wood of Ashby, MA; two daughters, Catherine Wood of Stewart, FL, and Wendy Wood of Portland, ME; a sister Kathleen Ryan of FI; three grandchildren, Viviana, Zander and Abby.

She is predeceased by her husband of over 50 years, William W. W. Wood Jr. A private service will be held in the Hillside Cemetery in Townsend at the convenience of Andrea's family.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Townsend Historical Society at <https://townsendhistoricalsociety.org/>

The T.J. Anderson & Son Funeral Home, 250 Main St., Townsend is assisting the family with the funeral arrangements.
