

Ann A. Jenne

December 29, 1960 - April 1, 2024

FITCHBURG: Ann A. Jenne, a woman of strength, compassion, and unwavering faith. Born on December 29, 1960, in Calbayog City, Philippines, Ann was the beloved daughter of the late Aurelio F. and Dianita S. (Salino) Alejandrino. In 1990, she embarked on a new journey, moving to the United States, where she would build a life filled with love, laughter, and countless memories.

Ann was a woman of many talents and passions. She held a Bachelor's Degree in Commerce from Arellano University Manila and had a successful career in banking, working at Baybank in the late 90s and TD Bank in the mid-2000s. However, her love for children and her community led her to become a school driver for Case Collaborative in Concord, a role she cherished for several years.

She loved singing and was an avid fan of America's Got Talent. She found joy in traveling with her family, buying gifts for her loved ones, and spending time at the beach. A green thumb, Ann had a knack for nurturing plants. But above all, she loved being a mom.

A woman of deep faith, Ann often referred to Luke 6:31, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." This verse was a testament to her kindness and compassion, traits that touched everyone she met.

Ann is survived by her loving husband, Welinton Martinez Gomez of Fitchburg; her son, Jacob Gomez; her daughter, Veronica Gomez; and her siblings, Solidad Balading, Zenaida Sarabuno, Wenefrida Jorge, Eduardo Alejandrino, Lilia Alejandrino, and Rowena Nicdao.

Her family will receive friends and relatives on Monday, April 8, from 6 to 9 PM at the Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon St., Fitchburg. A service in her honor will take place at 7 PM.

This website is a tribute to Ann's beautiful life. We invite you to share your memories, stories, and photos of Ann, as we remember a woman who brought so much joy and love into our lives.
