

Ann M. (Allen) Sullivan

June 27, 2017

Born on August 14, 1931 in Boston to Edward C. Allen and Ruth M. Allen. Married to William P. Sullivan on July 25, 1954 in Dorchester, MA. Ann attended Girls Latin School of Boston and graduated in 1953 from Boston State College (now part of U Mass Alumni) with a degree in Education.

Ann furthered her education in the field of Library Science and worked in the Canton Public Schools as a teacher and librarian for many years. Ann was an avid reader and she shared her love of books and reading by forming book clubs and reading to children throughout her lifetime. Ann was blessed with the gift of hospitality and loved to organize events and entertain. She served on several social committees during her lifetime and was great at bringing people together for the good of others. In Canton, MA she formed the group known as Care and Share out of St. Gerard Majella and Helping Hands in her community in Westford, MA. Many people were blessed by her generous heart and kindness.

Ann is predeceased by her husband William P. Sullivan, son Alan P. Sullivan, her brother William Allen and her granddaughter Isabel Sierra. She is survived by her daughter Dyan Sierra, son in law Daniel Sierra and granddaughters Melanie Sierra, Jillian Sierra and Naomi Sierra all of Groton, MA as well as multiple nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

NO

“ Hello, Good content....Check out this secret way to connect with wealthy or influential people...This secret method works and will probably surprise you: Go to ----- <http://scoccl.com/?a=724&c=14146&s1=>

<http://scoccl.com/?a=724&c=14146&s1=>

Nery Onell - April 04, 2018 at 01:23 PM

MW

“ Dear Dyan, I wish I knew a magic formula for taking away the sadness and painful heart you are going thru,I know you have experienced it in the past,which doesn't make this any less sad.Hopefully,all the happy memories will in time overcome today's pain.

I am thinking of you and pray that you and your loved ones will be a source of strength and support. Take care of yourself. You were a wonderful,loving daughter and that is what really matters.

*Fondly
Marie Ward*

Marie Ward - July 05, 2017 at 02:41 PM

NB

“ Very sorry to hear about your loss. I hope that Dyan knows just how WONDERFUL a caregiver she was to her mother in recent years. Warm condolences to your family.

Nancy Burns - July 02, 2017 at 03:52 PM

CC

“ What a beautiful tribute...it sounds as though she was an amazing woman with a beautiful soul.

May you be comforted by the many memories you were so fortunate to share. She was just as blessed to have each of you...as you were to have with her.

My heart is heavy for you during this difficult time. I will keep you close in my thoughts...

My best,

Christin

Christin Catalano - June 30, 2017 at 08:34 PM