“ Annemarie and I became fast friends when I met her in my earliest days as a new nurse. We loved to "talked shop" about healthcare and her career as well as mine. I adored her for her spunk, her friendliness and genuine interest in others, and her great wardrobe :). I also fondly remember the pure joy and awe that both she and Tom had for the memorable event that was held for their special milestone about 5 years ago (?50th wedding anniversary I think?). My heart goes out to Kim and the entire family. - Cecily Kulsick

“ Anne Marie was such a loving and caring woman! She remembered every detail about everyone she cared about. She would often ask me about my family, my career, and my personal interests and she was genuinely interested. She shared many stories with me of her life and she definitely lived her life like we all should, laughing, loving and having a grand time! My condolences to all her family. I will remember her fondly for all of my days!
