“ This makes me so sad. Tony was one of the best people I was lucky enough to know. I will miss our chats when he would come in to Tinys for his seafood. He will be greatly missed by everyone there. My condolences to the family. You are all in our thoughts at this difficult time.

“ My condolences to Carolyn, John, Mike, Camille, Anthony, Claire and everyone else in the Cosenze family. Tony was such a warm man....a gentle giant. One of my first thoughts was, " Who is in charge of the tomatoes?"

Memory...Shared by Tony to me. When Jaclyn and Anthony were in day care together in Shirley, Joanne and I both had help from the grandparents and one day Tony was picking up Anthony and Jaclyn hugged Tony's legs and said..."Take me too Gramps." Always smile when I picture that.

I wish I had the opportunity to have played some bridge with him, we spoke of that happening.

He now has joined Kathy...I hope that brings some peace to this family.

I am sorry to miss the service, but we needed to see Doug's Dad before we head off to a 2 week vacation in Mexico.

Hugs to all of you.

“ Tony was an old school guy and never needed to be anything but himself. He was a class, class, act who always let you know what was in his heart and how he felt. He exuded courage throughout his military and civilian life. If he made a mistake, he was strong enough to apologize and step up and accept responsibility. He could be humble and repentant. He had an amazing and unshakeable sense of justice in every area of his life. He was born and raised with a innate sense of doing the ethical and moral way. Never afraid to step forward and lead others or any project but one of the most honest men and natural leaders I have ever met. I feel a great loss of a friend who I truly respected not only for his outstanding military service but how he lived a life of honesty, fairness, respect, and openness. A genuine example of an American soldier hero who stepped up and met the challenge in all the areas of life that he cherished. Thank you Tony for being an honest and humble friend loaded with a keen sense of justice, fairness, and Service. America desperately needs more men like you!

“ The world is a little less courageous, sensible and loving without “Bumpy.” His wisdom shined through and it was obvious that he cared for his friends and community and loved his family very much. We are honored to have made his acquaintance as in-laws and always enjoyed his company and we are grateful for the fine example of love and caring he set for our daughter-in-law, son and grandchildren’s lives. He had a beautiful way of making everyone feel welcome and special. We will miss him. With heartfelt condolences, Steve and Bonnie Toomey
