

Brian D. Sullivan, 75, of Groton

March 3, 1950 - October 26, 2025

GROTON; Brian D. Sullivan, 75, of Groton, died unexpectedly Sunday, October 26, 2025 at his home.

Brian was born in Leominster, March 3, 1950, a son of the late William and Mary (Crain) Sullivan and has resided in Groton for over forty years. He was a 1968 graduate of Lexington High School and continued his education at Northeastern University, Boston.

Starting in 1981, with his brother, Chip, Brian owned and operated Emerald Construction Company, Carlisle.

Brian enjoyed time at the beach, listening to music, reading, boxing and putting in a full day of work ending with a cold beer sitting outside in the sun. More than anything he loved his children and for the past 3 years being a grandfather. His two grandsons fueled and feed his heart.

He leaves his wife of 35 years, Linda Lee (Joly) Sullivan; three sons, Brett M. Sullivan of Groton, Matthew J. Sullivan and his wife, Brittney of Townsend, Sean P. Sullivan and his wife, Maria, of Pepperell; his daughter, Kelsy Sullivan and her husband, Alex Wilkinson of Savannah, GA; his brother, William "Chip" Sullivan of Carlisle; his two sisters, Jane Sullivan of Seattle, WA, Patricia Davis of Cape Elizabeth, ME; two grandchildren, Benjamin Sullivan and Nathaniel Sullivan.

He was the father of Meagan Sullivan and Emily Sullivan who passed away as infants.

Funeral services and interment will be held privately.

The Anderson Funeral Home, 25 Fitchburg Road, Ayer is assisting the family with arrangements.

“ I am heartsick to read this news. I got to know Brian as his children; Brett, Matthew, Sean, and Kelsey were in my Kindergarten Class. He was always such a kind and loving Dad. I can only imagine what a joy he was to his grandchildren. Dear Linda and the children are in my loving thoughts and prayers.
