

Bryan Robert Daigle

November 4, 1956 - July 24, 2018

Fitchburg: Bryan R. Daigle, 61, of Fitchburg, formerly of San Diego, CA, died Tuesday, July 24, 2018 at his home, surrounded by his loving family, following a lengthy illness. He was born in Fitchburg, November 4, 1956, the son of Bernice I. (Boudreau) Daigle and the late Robert R. Daigle.

Besides his mother, he leaves his sister Ann Marie (Daigle) Lozier and her husband David D. Lozier and his two nieces Samantha R. Lozier and Margaret S. Lozier of Sarasota, FL.

Bryan is a graduate of Fitchburg High School, class of 1974. He worked in high-tech sales for many years in California. Bryan had a wide range of hobbies, including gardening, collecting sports memorabilia, fishing, camping, and cooking (football parties on Sundays).

Bryan had a lifelong passion for the Rolling Stones. He and his group of friends from around the world, The Shidoobees, traveled extensively to see their concerts and gathered annually in Wildwood, NJ.

Bryan's favorite activity was spending time with his nieces, including sleepovers, going to see movies, and fishing derbies.

At Bryan's request, there will be no calling hours.

There will be a service at St. Joseph's Cemetery at 11am on October 6, 2018 and a "Celebration of Life" at The Stone House, Coggshall Park, at 12:30pm on October 6, 2018.

“ Daigs so glad I was part of your life we had so many great times.you lived your life to the fullest. I will miss you at our annual fishing derby but you will be there in spirit. One of my favorite times was when we went to see Jethro Tull two nights in a row general admission and we got 2nd and 3rd row seats, I was glad to be there for our last concert together this year for your birthday and it was a great time how fitting it was to see Jethro Tull again with you, thanks you Anne.

RIP HAMMER
