“ One of our birthday gang is gone and you will be sorely missed. For about 18 years, 4 of us who had a birthday in January would go out to lunch. Once we all left Lockheed we still got together along with the spouses, out to lunch and/or dinner. We talked about our kids graduating junior high, high school, college, get married and then count the grandkids. That's a whole lifetime of memories that no one can take away from us. God bless you.
