

Clarence J. Allain, 81, of Ayer

July 7, 1943 - May 8, 2025

AYER: Clarence J. Allain, 81, of Ayer. It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Clarence J. Allain on May 8, 2025 at UMass – Memorial Hospital, Worcester.

Clarence was born in Ste. Marie de Kent, New Brunswick, Canada July 7, 1943, a son of Nelida (Robichaud) Allain and the late Thomas Allain and spent much of his life in Massachusetts.

Most of Clarence's career was spent working as a carpenter but in later years he drove a van transporting the elderly and handicapped.

He enjoyed camping with his wife and had travelled to Florida many times. He enjoyed talking on the phone while listening to his favorite Canadian radio station and playing solitaire.

In addition to his mother of St. Marie de Kent, Clarence leaves his caring wife of forty one years, Diane (Hache) Allain; his children, Denise Allain LeBlanc and her husband, Everett of Alberta Canada, Claude Allain and his wife Julie, of New Hampshire; his grandchildren, Jessica Allain, Caitlyn Allain Hanning and his great granddaughter, Everly Hanning; his sister, Lucille Girouard and her husband, Guy; his brothers, Rosaire Allain and his wife, Nora all from St, Marie de Kent and Alvin Allain and his wife, Alice of Bouctouche, NB, Canada.

He also leaves his brothers in law, Hayward McKenelley in NB Canada, Clarence and Mary Hache, Ernie and Anita Hache all of NB. Canada, Irene and Marcel Couture of Florida as well as many aunts, uncles, nieces nephews and cousins.

He was predeceased by his nephew, Gaeton Girouard; his father in law and mother in law, Alyre and Yvonne Hache and his sister in law, Georgia McKenelley.

Clarence's family will receive relatives and friends at calling hours, 4-7 PM Wednesday, July 9, 2025, at the Anderson Funeral Home, 25 Fitchburg Road, (Rte 2A) Ayer.

“ I'm not sure but was wondering - did Mr. Allain and his family ever live in Buzzards Bay, MA which is just before Cape Cod? If not, he has a doppelganger family. Denise, Clarence, Bouctouche, carpenter - all very familiar. My condolences - whether I knew Mr. Allain or not.
