“ Dear Daddy

Its hard for me to find the words to express what I am feeling. I have said my goodbyes to you but it still feels like you are here. I miss you so much already but I do find comfort in feeling your presences with us. You have taught us so many things over the years including how to be strong. I am holding on to that more now than I ever have been. This past year we have watched you battled cancer and you put up a strong fight just as the fighter you are.

Until we meet again Daddy.

Love

Your

little girl Brenda and her family xoxo

“ To the family of Mr. Minor,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences over the passing of your dear loved one. During the time when I experienced a loss of a loved one, it was messages like these that helped me endure. Along with the reminder of a time when suffering will be gone. (Isaiah 25:8.) Until then, I wanted to pass along the comfort that was given to me in hopes that soon, your family will find the strength to endure.

“ Clarence made quite an impact on people. He was truly a big brother. The only one of us siblings that was an only child, even if it was for only a couple of years. I should of asked him what he thought every time another one of us was born. we will miss him. Love and prayers to Nellie and the family.

“ Uncle Clarence you will be missed. My heart goes out to the family. All the memories I have of you are great ones your humor, your ability to make something work or run anyway possible. That must be a "Minor" thing lol. I'm glad I learned that ability. Like when me and dad lived next door in the trailer or out back in the camper. I used to watch you repair things. Between you and my dad Lester I haven't found anything I couldn't make run or fix. I just want to thank you for letting me learn some of the vast knowledge you have. You will be missed.

“ Dad,
It's hard to fully grasp the fact that you're gone. I thought I've been through some hard times in my life, but watching you be taken from us by cancer was the hardest of all. Such a strong, proud yet humble man you were. Always had a sense of humor and looked at the bright side of things. I remember all the tasks you and me accomplished with little to work with. If we didn't have it, we made it. Cancer took an unreplaceable man from us, but it cannot and will never strip us of our memories and values you taught us. My heart aches that you're gone, but now you can go on with no pain and return to your former vibrant self. Rest in peace Dad. I love you!

“ Dad,

I miss you more than words can say. Your sense of humor and the way you carried yourself will stay with me forever. I hope you were greeted in heaven by those who you loved who past away.

I hope there's a huge wood working shop in heaven so you can build anything you ever dreamed of.

You'll be forever in the hearts you touched during your time off Earth. There's a lot of hearts, by the way Dad. Seems to me that anyone you came in contact with fell in love with you.

You're such a great man, husband, grandfather and father.

Love you forever!

Love,

Cathy

“ The loss of my brother Clarence brings tears to all that knew him, especially his family. We always looked up to him for advise such as solving a problem building something or fixing a broken thingamajig. He taught me how to ride a bicycle and chop wood at the same time. He will be kept forever busy up in heaven fixing all the broken hearts. Clarence will be greatly missed.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Please find comfort in God's sure promise of a resurrection as set forth in the Bible. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29) Those who are raised to life will have the prospect of never again being subject to misery, sickness, or death. (Revelation 21:4) I hope that reflecting on these thoughts will give you some relief during this difficult time.

“ Nellie and family, we are heartbroken by the loss of Clarence. We loved him so much and he and Paul were brothers as Clarence always said. I'll miss his big bear hugs whenever we saw him and his hardy laugh. Know that he is always with you all and watching over you. Take comfort in knowing he's not in pain any longer and is at peace. He will be missed. If you need anything please let us know. We love you all.

Godspeed Clarence, we love you.

“ Clarence, my brother, will be remembered for many things. His sense of humor was always there even in difficult times. He could fix or make just about anything. He taught me so many things through life. Collecting as many pieces of wood that I could, is one of them. My garage is getting full. My sons are also wood collectors. It's because of Clarence. That's a good way to carry on his tradition. God bless you Clarence.
