

Daniel Lawrence Holohan

January 20, 2018

Dan was born November 25, 1954, to Simone A. (Grenier) Holohan and the late Paul W. Holohan.

Dan graduated from North Middlesex High School in 1973, and earned his bachelor's from Fitchburg State.

Besides his Mother of Townsend Dan leaves behind his wife and best friend of 32 years, Deborah (Marjomaa) Holohan;. He also leaves his son Jason, his daughters Kristi and Jackie (and even her husband Mike). Dan treasured his two grand kids – Gwen and Lucas Daniel. He leaves a brother Bob Holohan and wife Susan, of Townsend. Dan was very close to his seven nieces.

He was predeceased by his brother, Rick Holohan, last year.

Recently retired, Dan was a well-respected sales leader of electrical supplies for over 40 years.

Dan lives in all of us, he truly stood for these values: his love of nature, animals (esp. small hunting dogs), people, his loyalty, strong faith, great sense of humor, great work ethics and of course having fun.

Dan died in his sleep, at peace. As Dan has abruptly said to many of us...

“Gotta-go, bye.” We all know that this means... he will meet us again shortly and he loved us.
