

David M. Egan

October 2, 1928 - February 10, 2019

Groton: David M. Egan, 90, formerly of Scituate and Marshfield died February 10, 2019 at Apple Valley Center, Ayer. Mr. Egan was born in Cambridge, October 2, 1928, a son of Walter T. and Winifred (Murphy) Egan and resided much of his life in Scituate and Marshfield before moving to this area five years ago. He was a graduate of Arlington High School and in 1950 received a Bachelors Degree in Math from Tufts University. Dave proudly served his country in the United States Navy during the Korean Conflict. On completing his service, Dave worked as a consultant for many years, primarily in the oil industry. A master carpenter and an avid hockey player, Dave produced both fine furniture and splendid goals into his eighties. Dave leaves his former wife Irene Egan of Scituate; his daughter Sandra Loud of Abington; his son and daughter in law, Michael and Joelle Egan of Groton; and four grandchildren, Andrew Egan, Sophia Egan, Matthew Egan and Hannah Egan. He was the brother of the late Walter Egan of Hingham, Jeanne McGuire of Duxbury and John Egan of West Palm Beach, Florida. A service of committal with military honors will be held at 1 PM Wednesday, March 13, 2019 at the Massachusetts National Cemetery, Connery Ave., Bourne.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

MAR 13. 1:00 PM (ET)

Massachusetts National Cemetery
Connery Street
Bourne, MA

Tribute Wall

SL

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I have so many happy memories of the Up the Hill Gang and the Down the Hill Gang sharing life together. Christmas Eves, dinner parties, beach walks and ice skating are particularly memorable times we spent. Dave taught me how to skate on a cranberry bog! He made sure my nickname of Shoo-Shoo stuck. May he rest in peace.

---

Suzette Lebenzon - March 05, 2019 at 01:09 PM