“ David was a a great and friendly classmate in our architecture class at Carnegie Tech. I've had much too little contact with him in more recent years to my great disappoinment. I cherish the memory of his easy laugh and good humor

“ Hey David...many lifelong memories and very humerus times in our life connection especially in our childhood years, high school years, and later years. Arlington was the proving ground for you and me in growing up, and those memories of Xmas, cars, beer, Buttricks, and parties...and Cape trips will remain as part of my life. Peace...your cousin, Stephen.
