Thank you Dan. We appreciate it. I'm sure he's hanging out with the rest of the family reminiscing the good times. My fondest memories include when we were all together. You all have a special place in my heart. Kelly xo

“ It wasn't long ago that I asked his sister about him. I didn't get an answer, maybe because she didn't have an idea who I was. I remember it was maybe fourth grade, and we had a chance to bring to school our favorite Christmas gift. He brought his cowboy cap guns. I thought somebody might object to that, but I also thought he was cool for bringing them in. --Dave Clark
