“ i was running late for a meeting at NMRHS. Diane must have sensed that I had not had time to eat anything. So she brought me a cup of Cream of Broccoli, Cheddar Soup from the cafeteria and a piece of buttered bread. What a sweet lady!

“ My sincere sympathy to Dianne's family on their sudden loss .
Diane was Captain of the Townsend Cheerleaders when I became a member of the squad, and I have many happy memories of her and our time together cheering for SMS! She was also my boss in the Middle School cafeteria and taught me a lot about the food industry. She will be greatly missed! May she RIP.
