“ I wish for you to know that we share many of the same relatives. My grandmother Ruth Simmons used to regularly write to Dolores and her mother. You probably, still, have their letters in a box, somewhere.

Dolores Leger's mother was Anna (Ann) Young who married William Leger.

Dolores' grandmother was Emma Gonyeau who married William F Young.

Dolores' great-grandmother was Elizabeth Sweeney who married Edward Donald Gonyeau in Saint Albans, Vermont. They are my 2nd great-grandparents on my mother's side. I have a lot of information if you wish to connect. I am on Facebook.

My mother is Patricia Ruth Simmons who married James Edward Boyce. She is currently 90 years of age and living in Rutland, Vermont. She was born in Barre, Vermont.

My grandmother was Ruth Mary Tully who married Arthur Vernon Simmons in Montpelier, Vermont. They raised their family of three in Barre, Vermont.

My great-grandmother was Lida Mary Gonyeau who married Edward Joseph Tully in Burlington, Vermont before moving to Montpelier, Vermont.

My great-grandmother, Lida Mary Gonyeau and Dolores' grandmother, Emma Gonyeau were sisters (Lida Mary was the youngest sibling of eleven children) born to Edward Donald Gonyeau and Elizabeth Sweeney in Saint Albans, Vermont.

My wife, Linda and I extend to all of Dolores' family members, Dolores' friends and acquaintances, and her former neighbors our sincere condolences and many prayers. May God rest her soul in Heaven.

“ *I miss and love you Grammie.
The beach, your Red Sox lamp, our beaded head dresses from your favorite flea market, your singing, your signature on my birthday and Christmas cards.
All these things; big and small and so much more I will always remember and take with me.
I love you. I'll find you in front of the statue.*

Dolores served faithfully as my Executive Secretary at Fort Devens 1975-1978. I especially treasure the memory of the strong loyalty she had for the Army and for Fort Devens. Her keen sense of humor was frequently responsible for diffusing difficult situations in the command and kept her bosses from thinking too much of themselves. She was a delight to be around! Sally and I are very saddened by her passing.
