“ I have many fond memories of Donny. He was very much a part of our family. Both my children Marc and Stephanie called him Uncle Donny and my husband Jimmy and I never felt the need to correct them, nor did Donny himself feel the need as well. He didn't think twice about disciplining them either if need be. He was there watching and protecting not only our children but every child who knew him. In today's world you can't find many like him around anymore. He was a wonderful person, a joy to be around. He could make you laugh for hours. We are very blessed to have had the honor of his friendship. He will be missed. We love you Donny. God bless my brother.... you will never be far from our thoughts.
