“ Oh my dear friend and coworker,how much I am missing you, and our daily phone conversations. Now I sit here and watch your desk with the hopes you will walk through the door or I will see you sitting there. Only god knows why he did this. You have left many memories with us, and those memories, and your legacy is what will keep us strong. I'm sure you are putting nicknames on the angels by now, as you did for us. You will forever be in my heart. My deepest condolences to the family. Until we meet again my friend. You will be greatly miss by many, as you were an amazing person.

“ Well big sis, I did not expect to be doing this! I'm feeling like you have been ripped out of my life and we had no last look or words. I wish you were here for a last crazy laugh you have or one of your silly faces or funny joke. I want to say I love you and even though we did not speak everyday I will remember all the fun we had when we got together! I am happy to see all the love extended to you by so many. “ Donna was the most spirited, outgoing, loving and funny person I ever knew. When I would be patrolling the halls of the Bedford VA, she would stop me and greet me with "Hello Officer!!" along with a great big smile. I recently asked her coworkers in Building 9 about her before I found out she had passed and they said she was doing fine and waiting for her next surgery. I am still in shock over her passing. I know she is looking down on us right now and smiling or saying something pretty funny. Donna, I will miss you my friend. Thank you for your service to this country and your dedicated service to our veterans at the Bedford VA. You will be sorely missed. My condolences to the Beal family, her co-workers and all who knew Donna.

“ I served in the Army National Guard with Donna. She was referred to as Mama Beal by a lot of the younger soldiers. She took care of us and kept us in line. She made sure everybody had what they needed but made sure you "Signed the book" before you left. Some even remembered objects flying past the heads of those who tried to get away without signing or properly greeting Mama at the door. She is a Veteran and a hero. Thank you Donna for all you did for your country. We love you
