

Ernest A. Charron

October 12, 2017

Mr. Charron was born in Fitchburg, February 4, 1918, a son of Wilfrid and Alma (Laberge) Charron and was a lifelong Fitchburg resident.

During WW II Mr. Charron served his country as a photographer in the United States Navy. Many of his photographs from WWII reside in the National Archives.

For over 20 years Mr. Charron worked as an industrial photographer for Barkley & Dexter Laboratories in Fitchburg, retiring in 1983.

He leaves his wife of 74 years, Therese M. (Normandin) Charron; a daughter and son in law, Andrea L. and Francis Hachey of North Reading; a sister, Pauline Pelland of Fitchburg; three grandchildren, Andrew Hachey, Kathryn Hoyt, Lauren Cook; seven great grandchildren, Tabitha Polito, Tarryn Balch, J. Samuel Hoyt, Benjamin Hoyt, Jacob Hoyt, Abram Cook, Rhea Cook and a great great granddaughter, Tessa J. Balch.

He was predeceased by a brother, Camille Charron.

Mr. Charron was a member of St. Joseph's Church in Fitchburg and was a faithful supporter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society there. He was a former member of the Knights of Columbus and had sung with a local Barbershop

Quartet Group. He was an avid reader, enjoyed working on crossword puzzles and watching the Boston professional sports teams. He also was an accomplished cook and prepared excellent meals for his family over many decades.
