The food was always delicious & there was plenty of it! He was funny, very outgoing, a great Carpenter, he loved the outdoors, & he worked hard to be successful at whatever he chose. “ Uncle Ernest became my "Archie Bunker Uncle" from the time "All in the Family" aired on TV. He just reminded me of Archie in certain ways--from his facial expressions, or funny things he'd say, or singing/joking around at parties, or smoking cigars/pipes, etc. He busted out his hearty laugh whenever I teased him about Archie too!

“ We contracted him to build our new home back in 1971. He was a skilled carpenter and made recommendations throughout the process. The house is still standing so guess he did a good job. He was our protector during the process as we were pretty young at the time. Good memories of him and his wife and family..
