“ I learned all kinds of things from your mom when we were kids.... She was always on top of things & never seemed to be flustered by anything.

Wish I'd gotten to see her before she passed.....I miss her all ready.....

“ I will miss dear Ethel. She was a wonderful, helpful, and thoughtful neighbor of mine on Eastman St, for over 30 years. She made delicious cookies and breads, which she would surprise us with. Her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren will certainly miss her, and cherish her memory...My sincere sympathy to all her family.

“ My condolences to Ethel's family. She was a wonderful woman and a pleasure to know. I'll remember her helping me out on Saturday nights with Steve, while I worked. I'll remember the wonderful goodies she baked with her family and gave out. I'll remember when she and Howard first came to Grace Baptist Church... the family took up a whole row! Love you Ethel, rest in peace.

“ To all of Ethel's family - I am sorry for your loss. Ethel was part of my Bible study group at Heart to Heart. She would listen quietly and when she spoke up it was always meaningful. I lead worship there on Tuesdays and I had told the ladies at the beginning of this year that even if they didn't know the words to a song, to listen and follow along reading them, because there could be a word or a phrase that would pop out and be just for them. One Tuesday last fall Ethel walked around to the front on her walker to tell me the song Be the Strength of My Life was just for her. I treasured that. You have been blessed with a woman of God who relied on Him and it shined in her face. I will miss her very much. She is at peace now in the arms of the Savior, seeing heaven and relishing her time in His presence. I wish we could see her face now. My love to all of you.

“ May your mom rest in peace! She was the most devout person I have ever been blessed to know. Auntie, ALWAYS PUT OTHERS FIRST. She was an angel on Earth and has now received her Heavenly wings. I am sure our moms are together. She will always remain in my heart. Xo

“ I am so sorry to here of Mrs Davis 's passing ... I met her so many years ago back in the late 70's when I became good friend with her daughter Nancy ! We went to high school together and I was at there home several times ! She was an amazing woman and so sweet and loving ! She always made me feel comfortable and welcome whenever I came to her home !
I have not see her in so many years and she looks absolutely the same as I saw her last ❤️
May she Rest In Peace and I hope the family can find comfort in knowing she is in good hands now ❤️ Forever and ever Amen ❤️
Sincerely, Pam Vitullo

“ Our deepest sympathy to Ethel's family and friends in your time of loss.
We have been blessed to call her neighbor and sister in Christ, and we will miss her dearly. She was an incredible woman and we will never forget all the kindness and wisdom (and baked goods!) she shared so generously with us.
She has impacted my heart forever with the most beautiful sacrificial love for her beloved Howard, even in her weakness she continued to faithfully care for him in the most heartfelt way.
We rejoice that she is no longer suffering but is free from pain and in the presence of Jesus! She leaves a legacy of love and faith that will live on in the lives of those she loved so well.
