She worked at Berkey Photo for 20 years until they closed; a job that she loved. She also enjoyed working at the Fitchburg Post Office during the busy Christmas season.

Sis always enjoyed spending time with her family. She especially loved the holidays, always looking forward to the next one. She will be remembered for always taking such pride in keeping a clean and pristine home. Sis spent her entire life living in Fitchburg’s East side. She loved her little ranch home where she and her first husband Paul raised their family; her brother Charles and his family lived next door. She is survived by her two daughters, Lois Luniewicz of Westminster and Linda Mello of Leominster; grandchildren, Kristin Wrenn and fiancé Jamie Mercarter, Jeremiah Mello and wife Kaitlynn, and Christopher Luniewicz and wife Steffanie. She also leaves her two beloved great grandchildren, Carter Mello and Tucker Luniewicz as well as several nieces and nephews.

Sis was predeceased by her first husband Paul Brissette in 1978; Gerard Richard, her second husband in 2023, and her two brothers Forrest and Charles Morris.
