

Francis N. Bellafiore

February 6, 2017

Mr. Bellafiore was born in Fitchburg, January 3, 1932, the youngest son of Gaspare and Anna (Cusomano) Bellafiore and was a lifelong Fitchburg resident. He was a 1950 graduate of St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School and then went to a Monastery.

For over 50 years Mr. Bellafiore worked in the banking industry, initially at Safety Fund National Bank in Fitchburg, then at the Cleghorn Credit Union and most recently as a loan officer at Workers Credit Union, retiring in 2011.

Always close to his Catholic faith, Mr. Bellafiore was an active member of the Madonna of the Holy Rosary Church and later attended St. Joseph's Church, both in Fitchburg. He always held a special devotion to the Blessed Mother.

He served as an election officer for the City of Fitchburg Ward 2. Frank also loved his New England sports teams, Boston Red Sox's and Patriots. He also enjoyed his weekly trips to Mohegan Sun.

He leaves his brother, Vito J. Bellafiore of Lunenburg, a niece, Diane J. Bellafiore Tagliavia and her husband Paul of Fitchburg, and a niece Susan J. Bellafiore, of Leominster, and niece JoAnn L. Bellafiore Robichaud, and her husband Steve of High Point, NC, and a nephew Michael P. Bellafiore, and his wife Diane of Roswell, GA. He also leaves behind a great nephew Anthony J.

Bellafiore of Leominster, a great nephew Jonathan S. and a great niece Anna Belle Robichaud of High Point NC, and a great nephew Christopher L. Bellafiore and his wife Lucie of Roswell, GA. He also leaves his Workers Credit Union family and friends.

Frank was predeceased by his older brother, Paul A. Bellafiore and his sister in law, Joan A. Bellafiore.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of the passing of Frank. I had the good fortune of first meeting Frank at the Cleghorn Branch of WCU back in the early '60's.

We have lost one of the kindest and gentlest people I have ever had the privilege to know. Frank was a true gentleman.

You have my heartfelt sympathy.

Rest in peace, dear old friend.

“ Frank was such a happy man. I always enjoyed talking and joking around with him, and his laugh was "infectious". This is a man that will be missed! To Frank's family, please accept my deepest sympathies on your loss!

“ Frank, I owe my entire career to you. I have loved you my entire adult life when we met through your Godmother and my Nanna. Boy did we love her spaghetti and meatballs! I will be forever grateful that you took a chance and hired that sassy girl from Long Island New York. I will treasure all of our memories and you were always a perfect gentleman. I admired the faith you had with God and you were such a positive role model in my life. I love you and until we meet again....God Bless you and your beautiful family. I know you loved them so much as you often spoke of them with me. To Frank's family, he was a gem and I am so sorry for your loss. But we all know he had a one way ticket up to heaven.

“ Frankie.....my little Italian buddy! Frank and I worked together for many years at the credit union and we would always talk about Italy, the Red Sox (magic number was a big topic always), Patriots, scratch tickets, church, and other topics that got him going! He and I just spoke last week when we were discussing the Super Bowl and how I wanted to take him out to lunch at the credit union so "his people" could see himhe loved Workers and the people here. I'll forever miss our conversations and especially those that began with, "now just between you and me" :)
He was quite the guy who could have run for mayor of Fitchburg and won as he knew so many people here.
Rest in Peace paisano....
