

Frank F. Massak

October 9, 1927 - May 11, 2020

LUNENBURG: Frank F. Massak, 92, formerly of West Street, Lunenburg and Dudley Road, Townsend, died Monday, May 11, 2020 at Life Care Center of Acton, Acton.

Mr. Massak was born in Philadelphia, PA, October 9, 1927, a son of John and Rose ( Porcela) Massak and resided many years in Lunenburg before later moving to Townsend in 2013.

He was the husband of the late Dorothy A. (Nolet) Massak who died in November 1994.

He leaves his son, J. Gregory Massak of Fitchburg; his daughter in law Kimberly (Contois) Massak of Leominster and three grandchildren, Shawn Massak, Eric Massak and Kyle Massak.

Mr. Massak served his country for fourteen years, during WW II and the Korean Conflict, in the United States Army, attaining the rank of Master Sergeant. Following his retirement from the armed forces, he worked several years at Sears before going to work at Lunenburg High School, where he spent thirty years before retiring in 1997 as the supervisor of maintenance.

Funeral services will be held privately.

The Anderson Funeral Home, 250 Main Street, Townsend is assisting the family with arrangements. Please visit their website at www.andersonfuneral.com for additional information or to leave an online condolence.

“ *Greg and family,
So sorry for your loss. Your dad was a great guy. I loved working with him at school. Lots of great memories. I loved how he always brought Champagne in to school at Christmas time and the end of the school year for us to toast to. Great memories. He will be truly missed. May he Rest In Peace.
Sincerely Judy Haley*

“ It is with heavy hearts that we write this message. We are so very sorry for your loss. Frank was the grandpa we never had. He will forever be remembered by each and everyone of us. We will miss the times that he visited the Bloomery to say hello and or to lend a helping hand. His kindness, humor and generosity will never be forgotten. With Love, Sonia, Maria, Thais, Igor, Eloa, Wendy and Families
