Gail passed away surrounded by her loved ones at age 84 after a battle with COPD, diabetes and liver and kidney disease. A family celebration of life dinner will be held at a later date, as well as private funeral services.

Gail is predeceased by her parents, Geraldine Haskins Dow and Melvin Buker Dow, her husband, Rocco Reola, and a grandson, Jonathan Elwin Vermette Cole. She is survived by a son, Douglas Roy Eagles and wife Melissa Eagles, a daughter, Donna Rae (Eagles) Joki and husband David Joki, grandsons Joshua Eagles, David Hackett and wife Melanie Hackett, James Hackett, and Andrew Vermette, and a granddaughter Jessica Vermette, as well as many nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Gail was born on November 1, 1938, in Boston, Massachusetts, graduated Canton High School in 1956, and Aviation Secretarial School a year later in 1957. Employment included Secretary to Manager at Nortronics, Inc, then Secretary to Vice President at Rockland Trust. Other fields of interest were knitting lobster nets, Certified Medical Transcriptionist and later a Certified Home Health Aide for Cura VNA. Gail worked many years at Boyer's Color Center as bookkeeper and store clerk and later owned Gail's Art Supplies in Plymouth, Ma.

Gail enjoyed the variety of birds who visited her feeders, loved butterflies, and several pets over the years, most recently her Persian cat Lady Sheba. What she cherished most was receiving calls from her children and friends. She was most often seen at her desk researching her family's genealogy or doing crossword or jigsaw puzzles.

Gail will be dearly missed by her family, as well as the amazing and loving staff at Crestwood Center which she called home. We thank them for the gentle loving care they provided in her later years.

The Anderson Funeral Home, 250 Main Street, (Rte 119) Townsend Center is assisting the family with arrangements. www.andersonfuneral.com.
