“ I just found out about George's passing from my daughter. My heartfelt sympathies to all of George's family and friends. George was a great guy and a dedicated and loving companion to my mother Pamela, especially in her challenging final years where he tirelessly took care of her. Thank you George from the Yoshida's and may God accept you into his kingdom of Heaven where you can be reunited with Pamela. May your memory be Eternal. With love, Andy Yoshida.

Thank you Andy and family. We loved Pam and miss her as well. Dad still cried on her birthday every year. Thank you for the picture of the two of them. God Bless

Debbie (oldest daughter to George)
