“ Wally, John Griffiths here. I was just discharged from the hospital (breathing issues - made it to 70 years though). My last breakfast before I was picked up, I was given a copy of the Lowell Sun. Wally, I never pay attention to the obits but leafing through the paper I came across the sad news. I am so sorry. Maybe there's a little humor, just maybe: For all the talk of fishing, I never go to go with your dad and his boat. I would have loved it. I'm going to look up your number to give you a call. It's been a long time, too long. Never forget the trip down in my M.I.S. Directed from Maine. Binoculars and all!
Take care my friend,
John (978)674-0035

“ *Charlene, Walter, Wesley and Kendra,
I know that no words can relieve the sadness that you are all dealing with, I too know that I am missing a true friend. Gerry was always there to give me a hand when he could, lend me a piece of equipment when I need it. I know that I will also be missing someone that I enjoyed hunting and fishing with, The jokes that we pulled on each other, If we were not the friends that we were, Well that goes with out saying.
Gerry, until we meet again.*
