

Geraldine Marie (Sullivan) Horgan

May 11, 2018

Gerry was born in Lowell on April 5, 1932, the second of five children to Edward T. and Mildred M. (Maguire) Sullivan.

She grew up in Westford Center, attended Westford schools, and graduated from Westford Academy in the Class of 1950. During high school, she was involved in many activities, including captain of the girls basketball team. She was a long-time parishioner of St. Catherine of Alexandria Parish.

For many years, Gerry worked as a telephone operator with New England Telephone before taking time off to raise her young family. After her children were in school, she returned to work in the Ayer and Harvard school systems.

She is survived by her husband, John; her children Patrick, Mary Jo and her husband Steven Nurney, and Christopher and his wife Pamela; her grandchildren Wesley Nurney, Benjamin Nurney, William Horgan, and Jacob Horgan; her sisters Patricia Horgan and Janet Persuitte; and many cousins, nieces and nephews, and dear friends. She was predeceased by her sister Catherine Levesque and her brother Edward (Tim) Sullivan.

“ My grandmother Alice Gertrude McAuliffe was Geraldine’s godmother. This Christmas we found a wrapped book present with a card addressed to Geraldine!in my Gamy’s handwriting. It was for Christmas 1957! It was an autobiography of Baruch. We had just replaced the furnace. It was near the furnace. My husband is enjoying it now and I am sure my grandmother is embracing Geraldine in heaven!!! Lv Deirdre Good Rees/ I am Bunny Mc Auliffe ‘s daughter. How time flies and presents are delivered!
