“ Dearest Anita, your sons and family, we are grief stricken for you all. Bud was a wonderful and kind man. It's unthinkable that he is no longer with you. We sincerely regret that we only just got the news. As an original member of our neighborhood, he will be greatly missed in so many ways. God be with you at this time of deep sorrow.

We will remember him in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My deepest sympathy Anita, Matt and Wendell. I'm going to miss my thoughtful caring neighbor. Bud would lend me a hand without being asked, whether it was shoveling my walkway and steps, helping with my luggage, or watching out for me by keeping an extra pair of eyes on my house. He was a kind man. Anita, I pray your memories and faith will bring you comfort.

“ Anita and Family, we are DEEPLY saddened by your loss! We are praying that God will carry you through this EXTREMELY difficult time in your lives! Bud was a TRULY WONDERFUL man! We can take comfort knowing that his soul rests on the arms of our BLESSED Savior! Psalm 30 verse 5 tells us, Weeping may endure for a night, but JOY cometh in the morning! God bless you!
