

Harriet Blain

September 24, 2017

Harriet lived the definition of a long, full life, and the last few days were no different; she regaled three generations of her family with stories of her youth, joyfully ate baked haddock, and showed us all how to gracefully and bravely face another inevitable part of life with humor and a strong sense of self.

Harriet was born and raised in New York City, the daughter of immigrants Sarah and Israel Banks. She frequently told vivid and entertaining stories of her early years, including rowing a boat into the middle of a lake to avoid prohibition officers (per her father's request), dancing and listening to swing/jazz music in 1940s NYC (her nickname was "Swivel Hips"), and hitchhiking with a girlfriend in 1944 from NYC to Provincetown, MA – among many other notable events. She met her husband Alec in a Hollywood-esque 'meet cute' during the Second World War in Times Square while he was on leave from the Royal Merchant Marines, and they wrote to each other for 7 years before Alec immigrated and became a US citizen when they married in 1952. Harriet and Alec raised a family in Canton, MA and later lived in Pocasset, MA on Cape Cod and in West Palm Beach, FL where they made very close and dear friends.

Harriet lived in Harvard for the past 9 years at Foxglove Apartments, and thoroughly enjoyed the Harvard COA events and all of her friends in town. In her later years she loved taking ocean cruises, spending time on Cape Cod, and enjoying holidays with family. Harriet was known for having more friends and social engagements than her grandkids, even in her 90s. Her grandchildren say she was the “epitome of badass”.

Harriet is survived by her daughter Cindy Sullivan of Dunstable, son Bruce and his wife Jayne of Harvard, grandchildren Sarah Sullivan, Beth Sullivan, Alec Sullivan, Myles Blain, and Camilla and Kevin Rojas, and great grandchildren Summer and Alex Rojas as well as many, many dear friends.

“ Harriet was a dear friend who came into our lives many years ago in Pocasset, MA. She and Alex were special to us and we spent many hours together telling stories, eating out, and just being friends.

Our hearts are with her family; but they, like us, know she would want us to remember her as the lively, happy person she was and not spend much time grieving her passing - but Harriet, when a bright light goes out - it is not that easy.

Next year, when your ashes are spread on the waters of Cape Cod, we will be there and will perform your famous "East West".

Pat and Richard
