

Hazel E. (Blenis) Calway

January 9, 2017

Hazel was the beloved wife of the late James J. Calway Sr., devoted mother of James J. Calway Jr. of Fitchburg, Robert Calway and his wife Kathy of Abington, Lori Stewart and her husband Douglas of Wilmington, Wendy Phillips and her husband Bruce of Rowley, the late David Calway of Lowell; a cherished and loving grandmother to Chris, Cory, Tyler, Michael, Bethany, Kaley and Brian; great-grandmother to Hazel and Hattie; a dear sister of the late Mabel Mell and her husband Richard of Leesburg, FL, Calvin Blenis and his wife Irene of Leesburg, FL, and Eleanor Pillsbury and her husband Richard of Hingham. Hazel is survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Hazel was born in Weymouth, November 22, 1932, daughter of Calvin H. and Lida M. (Thayer) Blenis and resided in Shirley for over 50 years. Hazel worked as a typographer for Action Unlimited Publications and the Public Spirit. She loved traveling, being outdoors as well as the many camping trips to White Lake and Sebago Lake with her family. She enjoyed crocheting, reading, and playing bingo. She cherished her family and especially the time she spent with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Hazel will always be remembered for her great sense of humor, compassion for everyone and love of family.
