“ My early years were spent at the farm with Henrietta and JJudge and Gramps. Judge was a hard working man and gramps was interesting eating his pickled pigs knuckles. Henrietta was soft spoken and very kind. I use to help clean the barns in exchange for riding lessons. She also had ponies that she would bring to fairs and Beth and I would help walk the ponies and help children in and off the ponies. It was a dream come true for us young girls. Henrietta also made the best hot chocolate anyone has ever had. Good memories from my past. Thank you Henrietta❤️🙏❤️
