

Jacqueline A. LeBlanc

January 6, 1937 - May 16, 2024

Jackie LeBlanc, 87

Jacqueline A (Tribou) LeBlanc, 87, formerly of Lunenburg, passed away Thursday May 16, 2024 at Benchmark Health Care of Leominster after a battle with cognitive decline.

Jackie was predeceased by her husband of 49 years, Gerald, who passed away in 2019, and her brother Arthur L. Tribou. She leaves two sons, Gregory LeBlanc of Fitchburg and Douglas LeBlanc of Charlotte, NC, as well as three nephews and their families.

Jacqueline was born in Brockton, MA in 1937 to the late Arthur G. and Alice C. (Corbat) Tribou. She grew up in Holden, and survived the 1953 tornado which struck the family home. Jackie also served in the Navy Reserves.

Jackie held numerous clerical jobs through the years. Prior to her illness, she enjoyed playing cards, working on puzzles, or finding a good game of Bingo. She had a soft spot in her heart for dogs.

Services will be private. The Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, Fitchburg is assisting the family. Memorial donations in her memory can be made to the ASPCA.
