

Jawaid Calvin Bhatti

April 5, 1952 - March 8, 2025

Worcester - Jawaid Calvin Bhatti, passed away on March 8, 2025 in Mass General Hospital.

Jawaid Calvin Bhatti is the eldest of Mr. & Mrs. Sagar Bhatti and has five younger siblings. Jawaid was born in Karachi, Pakistan. He completed his Bachelor's Degree in Honors Physics from Karachi University and later attended Dawood Engineering College. He completed his studies in Electrical Engineering and worked in Saudia Arabia for the next three years. Upon his return, he worked as an Electrical Engineer at Civil Aviation in Karachi for over 20 years before immigrating to United States. Jawaid completed his Master's in Computer Science and was working to complete his PhD dissertation in Herbal Remedies and Natural Medicine Simplified. He kept his employment within the Engineering field as his heart never lost its passion for Engineering. Jawaid was highly organized, had a compassionate soul, filled with energy, thoughtfulness, sensitive, determined, goal-oriented, and never backed down from a challenge. He always put forth his best and ensured that no one was left behind. Jawaid had a heart of gold and made sure that even the smallest needs and desires of his loved ones, even strangers, were fulfilled

Jawaid is survived by his wife, Faiyka Rose, three sons, Hasham, Shane, Jonathan; daughter, Michelle, four grandchildren and loving brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces, many extended cousins and friends all over the globe who will forever miss him.

Mr. Bhatti's funeral service will be held at 10am in the First Baptist Church, 1400 John Fitch Hwy, Fitchburg, on Saturday, March 15. Burial will follow in Evergreen Cemetery in Leominster. The Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon St., is directing arrangements.
